The Knights of Columbus in Indiana has again this year pledged support of the "Coats for Kids" program that provides winter jackets for children in need in Indiana County.

Council No. 1481 will donate the proceeds of two fall season fundraising events to the Angels Wings project operated by The Salvation Army and Indiana County Community Action Program. Their "Stop The Cold" campaign will answer local families' wishes for right-size coats for their kids this winter.

The brothers of Fr. McNelis Council No. 1481 can help in two ways:

- Help to serve (and be sure to dine) at the pancake breakfast Dec. 4 at St. Bernard Church.

- Help to distribute "Cash Cow" cards at the churches (and be sure to dine at Hoss's Steak & Sea House) on Dec. 11.

Thanks for your support! It makes a difference!

NOVEMBER MEETING NOTICE

The council trustees will present nominations to fill the vacant position of warden at the 7 p.m. Wednesday, Nov. 9 council meeting. Plan to be present and help shape the leadership of Council No. 1481.

JOIN THE FOURTH DEGREE ASSEMBLY

The Knights of Columbus presents the exemplification of the Fourth Degree of our order, the patriotic degree, on Saturday, Nov. 5. Please contact Faithful Navigator Pat Scanlon for complete information about advancement in this dramatic and inspiring ceremony.

Help support St. Anne Home, Greensburg, the intermediate, skilled and personal care residence sponsored by the Felician Sisters. Get your 2023 prize-a-day calendar! They're available now at St. Bernard and St. Thomas More churches.

Maybe you were there....
